ENTRY INFORMATION

According to the Rules Applying to Registration and Dog Shows, entries close at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, December 26, 2018, after which time entries cannot be accepted. No entry may be altered, substituted, or cancelled unless written notice is received by the Trial Secretary prior to closing date, except for bitches in season.

Bitches in Season: A written request from the owner, accompanied by verification of a veterinarian, must be postmarked prior to opening of the trial or given to the Trial Secretary prior to opening of the trial. The entry fee less $5.00 will be refunded. No bitches in season may be inside the show facility.

Exhibitors should follow their veterinarians’ recommendation to assure their dogs are free of internal and external parasites, any communicable diseases, and have appropriate vaccinations.

Entry fee is $26.00 for the first entry of a dog in Regular classes and $18.00 for each additional entry of the same dog in the same trial. Optional titling class fee is $26.00. Non-Regular class fee is $18.00. Entry in the UDX class (Open B and Utility B) is $44.00. When a dog is entered in more than one class, the highest priced class is considered the first Entry. Obedience entry fees include the $5.00 AKC recording fee and the $1.50 AKC event service fee. Rally fee is $26.00 for the first entry of a dog and $18 for an additional entry of same dog in the same trial. Entry in the RA class (Adv B and Ex B) is $44.00. Rally fees include a $3.00 AKC recording fee.

All entries must be on an official AKC entry form (including the back side), completed and signed. Photocopies without the agreement and rules on the reverse side of the official AKC form are not acceptable. Please TYPE or PRINT LEGIBLY. Use a separate form if the same dog is entered in different classes in different trials.

Mail entries with fees payable to TDOC to:

Bonnie Bailey, Computer Secretary, 6015 Miller Landing Cove, Tallahassee, FL 32312
Phone: (850) 893-0154 email: baileydogs@gmail.com

The trial secretary cannot call owners to acknowledge entry receipt. If sending by express mail, owners should ensure that the entry DOES NOT have to be picked up at the post office or signed for by trial secretary.

ENTRY FEES will not be refunded in the event that a dog is absent, disqualified, excused by a veterinarian (except for bitches in season) or barred from competition by action of the Trial Committee. No entry fees will be refunded if the Show cannot open or be completed because of extreme weather conditions, riots, civil disturbances, a public emergency, or any other cause beyond the control of the Club.

CATALOG: Catalogs are available for $2.00 if preordered on the entry form. A limited number of catalogs will be available for $3.00 the day of the trial.

ERRORS ON ENTRY BLANKS: Owners are responsible for errors and/or omissions on entry forms. No entry fee will be refunded in the event of such error or omission.

MOVE UPS are allowed for Obedience and Rally Trials in accordance with Chap 1, Sec 16 of the Obedience Regulations. All requests must be in writing at least 30 minutes before the start of the Trial, not the start of the class.

JUMP HEIGHT ORDER: Entries for all trials will be by jump height order beginning with jump height 12” and ascending from there.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR OPTIONAL TITLING CLASSES

BEGINNER NOVICE A & B: The Beginner Novice class is an optional titling class that may be offered by clubs at obedience events. If eligible as defined in these regulations dogs entered in Beginner Novice may also be entered in any other obedience classes. Judging will be as in the regular classes.

BEGINNER NOVICE A Class: The Beginner Novice A class shall be for dogs that have not won the BN title or any other AKC obedience title. A handler must own the dog entered, or be a member of the owner’s household or immediate family and may not have previously handled any dog that has earned any AKC Obedience title. Owners may enter more than one dog in this class. No dog may be entered in both Beginner Novice A & B at any trial.

BEGINNER NOVICE B Class: This class is for dogs that have not earned any AKC obedience title or who have earned a BN, CD and/or PCD title: but no other additional obedience titles. The owner or any other person may handle dogs in this class to earn a BN title. A person may enter more than one dog in this class. No dog may be entered in both Beginner A & B at any trial. The exercises for these classes are Heel on Leash, Figure Eight, Sit for Exam, Sit Stay and Recall.

GRADUATE NOVICE: In accordance with the AKC Obedience Regulations the Graduate Novice class is an optional titling class for all dogs. This class may be offered by clubs at obedience events. The owner or any other person may handle dogs in this class. A person may enter more than one dog in this class. However, if a person has handled more than one dog in the first five exercises that person must provide a handler for the additional dog in the same Group exercise.

GRADUATE OPEN: In accordance with the AKC Obedience Regulations, the Graduate Open class may be offered by clubs at obedience events. The owner or any other person may handle dogs in this class.

VERSATILITY: In accordance with the AKC Obedience Regulations, The Versatility class is an optional titling class for all dogs. This class may be offered by clubs at obedience events. Owners may enter more than one dog. The owner or any other person and may handle dogs in this class. Six exercises will be performed: two each from the Novice, Open and Utility classes. There will be no group exercises. The exercises will be performed and judged as in the regular classes. For the purpose of this class, scent discrimination articles 1 and 2 will be considered as a single Utility exercise. Prior to the start of judging, the judge will decide the combination and order of exercises to be performed in the class. This combination and order will not be disclosed to exhibitors until it is posted at the ring, approximately 45 minutes prior to the start of the class.
SPECIAL NON-REGULAR CLASS DESCRIPTION: The Wild Card Novice class is for any dog that is capable of performing the Novice exercises and that is eligible under the Obedience Regulations to compete in AKC events. No title is required to enter, and handlers may enter more than one dog. Dogs in this class may be handled by the owner or any other person, and may be entered in another class or classes. The Novice exercises will be performed and judged as in the regular Novice class, except that verbal praise during the exercises is to be encouraged and not penalized. Handlers may give additional commands, but they will be penalized accordingly. Each handler may choose to select one exercise as a wild card. The exhibitor will have the option of performing the selected wild card exercise, but will receive the full point value regardless of how the dog performs. When checking in, the handler must inform the steward or judge which exercise will be used as the wild card. The exercises will be performed in the same order as the regular Novice class. The point values for the exercises, scoring and maximum total points are the same as the regular Novice class.

The Wild Card Open class is for any dog capable of performing the Open exercises and that is eligible under the Obedience Regulations to compete in AKC events. No title is required to enter and handlers may enter more than one dog. Dogs in this class may be handled by the owner or any other person and may be entered in another class or classes. The Open exercises will be performed and judged as in the regular Open A class, except that verbal praise during the exercises is to be encouraged and not penalized. (Good, yes, nice, super, great, atta boy, are some examples of praise that would be allowed.) Handlers may give additional commands, but they will be penalized accordingly. Each handler may choose to select one exercise as a wild card. The exhibitor will have the option of performing the selected wild card exercise, but will receive the full point value regardless of how the dog performs. When checking in, the handler must inform the steward or judge which exercise will be used as a wild card. The exercises will be performed in the same order as in the regular Open A Class. The point values for the exercises, scoring and maximum total points are the same as in the regular Open class.

The Wild Card Utility class is for any dog that is capable of performing the Utility exercises and that is eligible under the Obedience Regulations to compete in AKC events. No title is required to enter and handlers may enter more than one dog. Dogs in this class may be handled by the owner or any other person, and may be entered in another class or classes. The Utility exercises will be performed and judged as in the regular Utility A class, except that verbal praise during the exercises is to be encouraged and not penalized. (Good, yes, nice, super, great, atta boy, are some examples of praise that would be allowed.) Handlers may give additional commands, but they will be penalized accordingly. Each handler may choose to select one exercise as a wild card. The exhibitor will have the option of performing the selected wild card exercise, but will receive the full point value regardless of how the dog performs. When checking in, the handler must inform the steward or judge which exercise will be used as a wild card. The exercises will be performed in the same order as in the regular Utility A class. The point values for the exercises, scoring and maximum total points are the same as in the regular Utility class.
